

2020 Multicultural Youth Conference

Re:VISION: Refocus Who God is to us

Scripture: Psalm 121

The theme of 2020 MCYC calls us to Refocus!

	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Daily Scripture(s)	Psalm 1-4	Psalm 5-6	Psalm 7-8
Biblical Focus	Jesus quiets the storm (Mark 4:35-41)	Jesus calls disciples friends (John 15:15)	Jesus speaks to Peter as rock and Satan. (Matthew 16:13-23)
Message	God creator who is in control; how do I place myself in God's path and welcome God to empower me; youth and power; as minorities, have not always been a position in power	God is your keeper; who has your back? What makes a good friend? What do they look like? A friend helps you become a better you, not someone else. Created in God's image. When we are looking towards who God created us to be, don't worry about the rest, God is taking care of it. (Golden Girls, Friends: images from pop culture and compare to real friends). And you should be that better friend for others. The role friends play for the minority.	In youth, you are you but you are also you becoming... whoever God has dreamed you to be. God watches over the good and the messy of that process. A lot of thresholds during this time frame (comings and goings) Old high school pics of leadership (our own growth process)/God is there all along. What our cultures tell us who we are (stereotypes, ageism)
Key Word(s)	Strength / Seek out the Lord daily	Friendship/Protector/ Confide your fears to the Lord	Helper/One who watches over you
Guiding Question(s)	Who do we see God in Jesus?	What does a good friend look like?	Where do you see God in your struggles/accomplishments?
